Effective July 29, 2006, ACORD has made 31 changes to the ACORD 28.

MBA calls attention to 2 significant changes to ACORD 28:

- Change at the Top of the Page of the revised ACORD 28:
 - FOR INFORMATION ONLY – the form has revised the language in the upper box, under the title of the form to make the evidence language null and void.
 - Now Reads: The revised language states the form is “a matter of information only and confers no rights upon the additional interest named below”
- Change at the Bottom of the Page of the revised ACORD 28:
 - CANCELLATION NOTIFICATION – the form has revised the language in the lower box under Cancellation. The revised language adds the qualifier that the insurance company will attempt to notify the additional insured.
 - Now Reads: The “insurer will endeavor to mail ___ days written notice to the additional interest named below, but failure to mail such notice shall impose no obligation or liability of any kind upon the insurer, its agents or representatives” (the blank is filled in by the insurance agent to signify the number of days notice required in the policy for cancellation).
